Buying a share in a CSA farm guarantees you a box of fresh, local nourishing vegetables, fruits, and other seasonal foods every week from spring to fall. At this event, five CSA farmers from Central Wisconsin will be giving presentations about their farms. They will discuss their farm history, farming practices, the food that is in their shares, the cost, and logistics.

CSA members will present on how they use their farm share and the benefits of being part of a CSA. This event is for the general public. All participants will have the opportunity to sign up for a CSA share and reserve their space for the coming season.

CSA shares were sold out throughout Central Wisconsin last year. Reserve your share today!
